PART A APPLICANT'S DETAILS

- More than one applicant may be named in an application.
- If there is insufficient space for the names of the applicants you may attach additional pages with similar details.
- If the applicant is not an individual then the correct name must be used, for example:
  - a company name
  - a business name regardless of whether it is registered under the Business Names Act 1962
  - a State agency name, for example a Queensland Government department.
- Your address will be the address at which documents are given or sent to you, unless you indicate your representative's address as your address for notices.
- Any change in your address for notices must be filed in the tribunal and given to all other parties.

Representative's details

If you want your representative's address as the address for notices, please complete your representative's details.

If you want your representative to represent you in any proceedings before the tribunal you must complete the Application for leave to be represented form seeking leave to be represented. Generally the tribunal expects people to represent themselves. It may not grant your request.

You are not required to seek leave if:

- you are a child or a person with impaired capacity
- your case is a disciplinary case
- an Act or the Rules state that you may be legally represented.
