

QCAT Practice Direction No 6 of 2010

Compulsory Conferences and Mediations

1. This Practice Direction replaces Practice Direction No 2 of 2009.
2. Written notice of a compulsory conference pursuant to section 67(2) of the Queensland Civil and Administrative Tribunal Act 2009 must be given no earlier than three months before the conference is to be held.
3. Written notice of a mediation pursuant to section 75(3) of the Queensland Civil and Administrative Tribunal Act 2009 must be given no earlier than three months before the mediation is to be held.
4. If any proceeding is not completely resolved at a compulsory conference or wholly settled at a mediation the person presiding at the compulsory conference or the mediator must:
  - (a) remind the parties that evidence of anything said or done during the compulsory conference or mediation is not admissible at any stage in the proceeding;
  - (b) inform the parties that they may agree upon a list of issues to be filed, admitted into evidence, and used for the purposes of the hearing of the proceeding; and
  - (c) inform the parties that the person presiding or the mediator can help them to draw up, and sign:
    - (i) an agreed list of issues in dispute;
    - (ii) an agreed list of issues not in dispute.
