

QCAT Practice Direction No 1 of 2009

Nomination of an agent to represent a group

1. If a number of parties to a proceeding consider they have a common interest in the outcome, they may nominate one of their number to be an agent to represent all of them in the proceedings.
2. Unless otherwise ordered*, the nomination must be made in writing, signed by the parties and filed in the tribunal.

*Justice Alan Wilson
President*

11 November 2009