

QCAT Practice Direction No 10 of 2013

Change of name - Queensland Building and Construction Commission

Effective: 1 December 2013

1. By operation of transitional provisions in Schedule 1, Part 9 of the Queensland Building and Construction Commission Act 1991, the Queensland Building and Construction Commission stands in place of, and is substituted for the Queensland Building Services Authority as a party in any unresolved application made to the Tribunal or legal proceeding before the Tribunal effective 1 December 2013.
2. By this Practice Direction:
 - (a) the Queensland Building and Construction Commission is relieved of any obligation to amend, file and serve previously filed documents in the Tribunal to replace the Queensland Building Services Authority with Queensland Building and Construction Commission;
 - (b) references to the Queensland Building Services Authority in documents filed in the Tribunal shall be taken as references to the Queensland Building and Construction Commission; and
 - (c) the substitution is taken to have been effected procedurally.
3. It will not be necessary for the Principal Registrar to place on the file for any such proceeding a copy of this practice direction or other notification of the substitution. The publication of this practice direction is deemed to be sufficient notification of the substitution.

*Justice David Thomas
President*

27 November 2013