The most common ways to give the stamped application to every other party are by:

- posting it to their address
- giving it to them in person, or if they refuse to take it, by putting it down in their presence and telling them what the application is
- leaving it with another adult who lives or works at their address.
- if the other party has an address for service that includes a fax number or email address, sending it to that fax number or email address.

You cannot give the stamped application to the respondent or any other party by leaving it in their letterbox or putting it under the door.

You will need to establish that the application has been given to every other party by filing a Form 9 Affidavit of Service, or by filing some other evidence or document that shows that every other party has received a stamped copy of the application.
