

Complaint form

Please do not use this form if you are unhappy with the decision the tribunal made.

QCAT decisions and orders are final and binding on all parties.

If you are unhappy with the decision, you are encouraged to seek independent legal advice about your options. Information about your appeal rights was enclosed with the decision. You may find further information at qcat.qld.gov.au > Decisions > Appealing a QCAT decision.

QCAT manages the following types of complaints:

- conduct of a registry staff member
- conduct of a tribunal member/adjudicator/mediator
- registry processes or procedures
- provision or quality of service
- breach of privacy.
